Representative Porter,

92-235

I received your response to my letter concerning the FCC Notice of Proposed Rule Making (NPRM-PR Docket 92-235) which proposes to insert high power output mobile radio channels very close to frequencies used for the radio control aircraft hobby.

In your letter, you indicated that this change would not adversely affect radio control aircraft hobbyists. Your statement is not true. If accepted, it will effectively make half or more of our current

Dear Mr. Jensen:

I received your communication regarding the Federal Communications Commission's proposed regulations affecting certain portions of the radio spectrum. According to the Commission, implementation of this proposal as written would not impinge on your enjoyment of your hobby.

As you know, the FCC in this rulemaking proposes reorganizing the licensed land mobile channels in

The FCC has extended the public comment period on this proposal because of the enormous number of initial responses received. Interested parties are encouraged to file comments on or before May 28th, and reply comments on or before July 14th. To file formally in this proceeding, one must file an original and four copies of all comments, reply comments, and supporting comments. The address to write to is: Office of the Secretary, Federal Communications Commission, Washington, DC 20554. For further information on the proposed rules, you may also call Doron Fertig, FCC Private Radio Bureau, at (202) 632-6497. For technical issues, contact Eugene Thomson, FCC Private Radio Bureau, at (202) 634-2433.

I appreciate the time you took to contact me on this important topic, and I hope you will always feel free to communicate with me on the issues of concern to you coming before the Congress.

Sincerely,

John Edward Porter
Member of Congress
